

“Conclave on Role of Young Women in Shaping Viksit Bharat 2047: A Tribute to Kasturba Gandhi”

The Shyamlal College (Evening) Participated in the conclave titled ‘Role of young women in shaping viksit Bharat 2047’ on February 22, 2025 held at Gandhi Darshan Rajghat, commemorating the 81 death anniversary of Kasturba Gandhi. The Program Organised by Gandhi Smiriti and Darshan Samiti (GSDS) New Delhi.

This program was attended by ten Students along with Dr. Vatsal Singh, Dr. Sarika Tyagi from the English department MS. Anju Bala from the Hindi department and Dr. Prabhakar Singh for the Computer Science department. According to the program Schedule, Students from different Colleges and institutions were required to set up stalls and participate in a discussion on the theme at Town Hall, The Students of Shyamlal college (Evening)

Showcased their creativity and critical thinking through beautifully designed posters on given theme.

During the discussion Students Shubham, Raja Babu, Kanhaiya kumar, Rahul jaiswal and Aman tiwari shared their perspectives and solution on women's issues, including their participation in society, politics, technology, bureaucracy, space and family.

B.A. program Student Raja babu captivated the audience with his powerful lines:

“उठो द्रौपदी वस्त्र संभालो
श्याम नहीं आने वाले
सीता युद्ध रावण ललकारों
राम नहीं आने वाले।”

These lines resonated throughout the hall, earning thunderous applause.

Shubham, a meritorious student of B.A programme, emphasized education as a key solution to women's problems. He highlighted the importance parental vigilance and awareness, especially in slum areas, stating that only then will Women achieve equal Status in society.

Sanskriti, a final year Economics Honours presented a bold poem ' बेबाक रहो ' while Adity Pratap Singh recited energetic and inspiring poems like तू है बुलंद, तू है प्रचंड on stage.

After the discussion at Town Hall, Students from various institutions and schools presented a cultural Program featuring mesmerizing dances, songs, thought-provoking Stage performances. The event concluded the unveiling of 'Kasturba Gandhi's Statue.

The program ended with refreshments, followed by the distribution of Certificates of students and faculty members.