Their discussion covered key aspects such as:

- The role of storytelling in brand building
- The importance of engaging and innovative content
- Strategies for sustaining and scaling content-based ventures
- How consistency and creativity fuel entrepreneurial success

Their expertise and experiences left a lasting impact on the audience, offering real-world insights into the evolving landscape of content marketing and entrepreneurship.

Q&A Session: Following their speech, the audience had the opportunity to engage with the speakers. Questions revolved around startup challenges, content monetization, and strategies to go viral. The interactive session provided students with valuable insights into content-driven entrepreneurship.

Vote of Thanks:

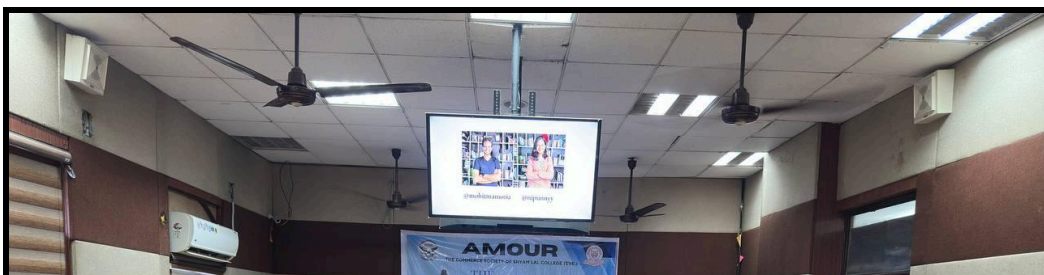

Aakarsh expressed heartfelt gratitude to Ms. Nipun Jain and Mr. Mohit Mamoria for sharing their experiences, proving that content is more than just engagement—it's about impact. Dr. Manu Umesh delivered the official Vote of Thanks, acknowledging the contributions of the dignitaries, faculty, and students.

Concluding Remarks The event concluded with a powerful message: consistency, creativity, and courage are the keys to success in both startups and content creation. The speakers and hosts emphasized the importance of storytelling and engagement in the digital era.

Announcement of Upcoming Event Before closing, the audience was given an exciting announcement about an upcoming Brainstorm Competition scheduled for March 3rd, inviting students to showcase their creativity and innovative ideas in front of industry experts.

Conclusion The event "Akshi" was an enriching experience for all attendees, offering valuable lessons on entrepreneurship and content creation. It successfully ignited a passion for innovation among students, setting the stage for future events aimed at skill development and career growth.

SPEAKERS FORUM DAY 4: GROUP DISCUSSION

Date: [3rd of March]

Venue: [Seminar hall]

Organized By: [Amour the commerce society of Shayam Lal College]

Introduction

The final day of the Speakers Forum was an exciting culmination of insightful discussions and competitive spirit. Hosted by Isha and Ganesh, the event provided participants with a platform to showcase their oratory and analytical skills through group discussions and extempore rounds.

Opening Ceremony

The event began with an inspiring quote by Ganesh: "Believe in the power of your dreams, cause they hold the keys to unlocking your limitless potential." Isha warmly welcomed the judges, faculty, and audience, reminiscing about the journey so far. The traditional lamp-lighting ceremony was led by Prof. Nachiketa Singh (Principal), Dr. Anil Verma (Teacher In-Charge), Dr. Manu Umesh (Convenor), and faculty members, followed by insightful speeches.

Main Proceedings

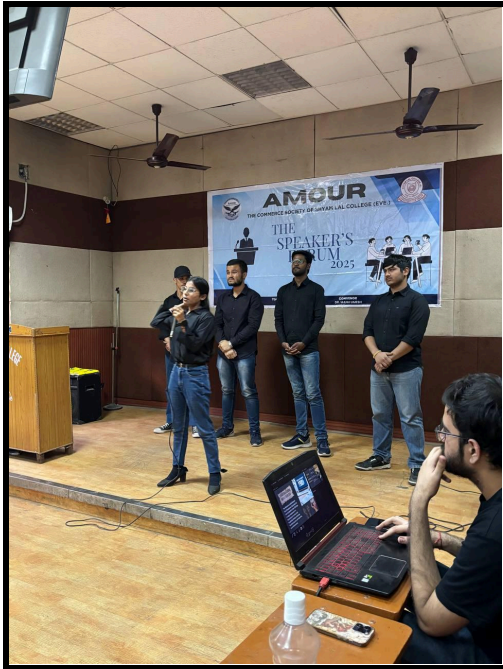

Isha outlined the agenda:

- Teams were assigned topics for presentations.
- Each team had a coordinator and team leader.
- The best speaker from each team would advance to the extempore round.

Ganesh explained the format: six teams presented on six topics, and the best six speakers would compete in the final extempore round, with three winners emerging.

Team Presentations

Selection of Best Speakers

The judges selected six outstanding speakers based on clarity, articulation, and presentation skills. Their names were announced, setting the stage for the extempore round.

Conclusion and Vote of Thanks

Ganesh motivated participants, saying, "Guys, aaj jo apne dekha yeh toh bas trailer tha, abb kal aapko dekhne milegi asli picture!" (Today was just the trailer; tomorrow is the real show!).

The convenor, Dr. Manu Umesh, delivered a heartfelt vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the organizing team, faculty, judges, and participants.

Final Remarks

The event ended on a high note, leaving participants inspired and eager for the next phase. Speakers Forum not only honed public speaking skills but also built confidence and encouraged intellectual discussions.

As the hosts signed off, they left a powerful message: "Keep working hard, keep growing, and always keep learning." With that, Day 4 came to an end, setting the stage for an exciting finale.

Day 5: The Grand Felicitation Ceremony

The grand finale of the Speaker's Forum witnessed an electrifying celebration of knowledge, competition, and achievement.

Opening Remarks:

Hosts Aradhana and Amardeep set the stage with an inspiring quote:

"Winning is not everything, but making the effort to win is."

They welcomed the dignitaries, including:

- Prof. Nachiketa Singh (Principal)
- Dr. Manu Umesh (Convenor)
- Dr. Anil Verma (Teacher-in-Charge)
- Faculty members and esteemed guests

Lamp Lighting & Principal's Address:

The ceremony began with a traditional lamp-lighting ceremony, followed by an empowering speech by Principal Sir, emphasizing the significance of perseverance and passion in achieving success.

The Extempore Round:

The much-anticipated extempore competition saw the top 8 speakers competing for the title of the best orator. Participants delivered compelling speeches, showcasing their quick thinking and eloquence.
