

Abhivyanjana has orchestrated a series of remarkable events, setting new standards for cultural engagement at Shyam Lal College Evening, University of Delhi.

Marking the beginning of the events for the session, the students from the dance and music wing presented patriotic performances during the Independence Day celebration in the college.

The committee practising its core domain, put up a fantastic gathering named 'GARBA RAAS -25' on of its flagship events(8th October, 2023):

An inter-college Dandiya competition and Dandiya night.

Witnessed a vibrant crowd of around 700 participants.

Well, nurtured students under the art, drama and culture committee participated in various inter College events, in the due course of which, Zaina Khan, participated in the Bollywood Singing Competition in Sri Aurobindo College(E) and bagged the THIRD prize.

One of our students even established benchmarks, participating in national level dance competitions.

The mega one was the Annual Cultural Fest - Genesis'25: A Celebration of Art, Culture and Excellence, featuring two electrifying competitions: IGNITE - The Western Dance Competition and GALI KHEDA - InterCollege Street Play Competition.

Over 25+ teams from across the university converged to dazzle audiences with their cultural dance performances and thought-provoking street plays, highlighting pressing social issues and sparking meaningful conversations.

IGNITE The Inter College Western Dance Competition hosted around 15 teams including Hansraj College, Ramjas College, Maitreyi, Motilal Nehru College, Shaheed Bhagat Singh College, BIPS and many more..

ELECTRA of Motilal Nehru College won the Competition with

KAYRA from Mata Sundri College secured 2nd position on neck to neck fight with SPARDHA of Shaheed Bhagat Singh who managed the 3rd position in the competition

GALI KHEDA The Inter College Street Play Competition coordinated by Yatharth of Abhivyanjana hosted 10+ teams who performed to showcase their art & talent putting light on various social & political issues

RANGAYAN from ARSD secured the 3rd position

ABHINAY Maharaja Agrasen College got the 2nd position while

AVARAN from BPIT won Gali Kheda

This spectacular fest not only celebrated artistic expression but also underscored the power of art to inspire change and drive social impact.

Abhivyanjana's Genesis'25 has set a new benchmark for cultural fests in the university.

We extend our sincere gratitude to our esteemed college administration for their unwavering support and encouragement, and to society members for their enthusiasm, participation, and contributions that made this session a grand success!
