

Annual Report, Gandhi Study Circle, Shyamlal College Eve, University of Delhi. Session 2024-25.

Gandhi Study Circle was significantly active throughout the session 2024-25 and organized a number of insightful and purposive events to inculcate the Gandhian teachings and practices among students.

1- Gandhi Jayanti celebration was organized by Gandhi Study Circle on 01/10/24. On this occasion, college principal Prof. Nachiketa Singh inspired everyone to imbibe Gandhian practices and philosophies in their life and focused on the importance of nonviolence, infidelity and cleanliness for human beings. The committee graced the day with various programs . Volunteers made the celebrations more vital through their wonderful performances like dramatic. presentation on “Relevance of Gandhi today “, bhajan Sandhya, and poetry recitation. Dr. Amit Singh, the convenor of Gandhi Study Circle , administered the Swachhata Pledge to everyone.

2- A visit of Gandhi Study Circle, to attend “ A unique exhibition on the reception of the Mahatma's life in Hungary through culture, political science and philosophy,” on 9th October 2024. Also,the exhibition was followed by lectures from distinguished speakers: 1-Prof (Dr) Nachiketa Singh, Principal, Shyam Lal College (Eve.) and 2- Dr. Dezso Szenkovics, Dean, Sapientia Hungarian University of Transylvania, Faculty of Sciences and Arts. " and monthly lectures series on “ A 21st Century Interpretation of Gandhi's Swaraj” on 14/11/2024 at National Gandhi Museum, Rajghat, New Delhi. Students became aware about Gandhi’s expectation from the children of his nation and what can shape their personality globally. Through this participation students became fully acquainted with the concept of Hungarian Gandhi.

3- Gandhi Study Circle, commemorated the death anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi on 30/1/25. On this occasion students remembered Gandhi through speeches, song-singing and poetry recitation. All the members of the Gandhi Study Circle and other teachers, students paid homage earnestly.

4- Members and students of Gandhi Study Circle, Shyam Lal College Evening, Participated in "Conclave on Role of Young Women In Shaping Viksit Bharat 2047: A Tribute to Kasturba Gandhi" on her 81th death anniversary at Gandhi Smriti and Darshan Samiti , Rajghat, New Delhi. During the program students showcased creativity through amazing posters, shared discussion and celebrated the contribution of empowering young women for a Viksit Bharat 2047.

5-An Intra-College speech competition was organized by the Gandhi Study Circle on 19/2/25. The theme of this competition was "Gandhi's Education philosophy and National Education Policy". The Principal Prof. Nachiketa Singh, underlined the importance of Gandhi's education policy in reference to NEP and appreciated all the participants for their wonderful performance. The students were really encouraged by the positive feedback they got from everyone present. In this competition, participants from many departments presented their views on the subject. Judges unanimously declared the first, second and third prizes Rahul Jaiswal, Kanhaiya Kumar and Rajababu Singh respectively.

Dr. Amit Singh, convenor of Gandhi Studies Circle, highlighted how Gandhi's education model is linked to the new education policy and conveyed a vote of thanks. All the members of Gandhi Studies Circle, other teachers, and students were involved enthusiastically in the program.

6- Gandhi Study Circle organised an Inter -College self-composed poetry recitation competition on the theme "Viksit Bharat and Gandhian values", on 5/3/25. In this competition, participants from various colleges of Delhi University presented their self-composed poetry on the topic "Viksit Bharat and Gandhian Values". Judges of the competition unanimously declared the first, second and third prizes to Khushi, Riya, Rajababu respectively and consolation prizes to Yogita and Brijlala. The Principal, Prof. Nachiketa Singh bucked up all the participants and explained the significance of Gandhian values for a developed nation. He described poetry as a powerful medium of expression of human emotions. Committee member, Dr Illa Bhushan conveyed the vote of thanks and expressed sincere gratitude to each and every member of GSC who contributed in making the event successful.

