This constitution or any amendment thereof shall come into force with effect from a date to be notified by the Head of the Institution.

Amendment to the Constitution: The Constitution may be amended only by the Staff Council.

CHAPTER XIV

Grievance Redressal Cell

A Grievance Redressal Cell shall be made comprising Teacher-in-charge of Students' Affairs as its Chairman, one senior faculty member nominated by the Head of the Institution, one senior administrative officer nominated by the Head of the Institution and two students from final year. The students must be one boy and one girl selected on the bases of their academic performance and the participation in co-curricular activities.

This Grievance Redressal Cell will discharge following functions.

- (1) In pursuit of its duties, the Grievance Redressal Cell may prosecute violators of any aspect of the code of conduct or the rulings of the Grievance Redressal Cell.
- (2) The Grievance Redressal Cell shall serve as a court of original jurisdiction. In carrying out the duties of the office, the Grievance Redressal Cell shall conduct proceedings and hearings necessary to fulfill those duties. In executing those duties they shall have the authority:
  - a. To issue a writ of subpoena to compel candidates, agents, and workers and to request students to appear and give testimony, as well as produce necessary records; and to inspect the financial reports of any candidate and make these records available for public scrutiny upon request.
  - b. Members of the Grievance Redressal Cell are prohibited from filing complaints. Any other student may file a complaint with the Grievance Redressal Cell, within a period of 3 weeks from the date of declaration of results. All complaints must be filed under the name of the student filing the complaint. The Grievance Redressal Cell shall act on all complaints within 24 hours after they are received by either dismissing them or calling a hearing.
- (3) The Grievance Redressal Cell may dismiss a complaint if:
  - a. The complaint was not filed within the time frame prescribed in Recommendation above;
  - b. The complaint fails to state a cause of action for which relief may be granted;
  - c. The complainant has not and / or likely will not suffer injury or damage.

- d. If a complaint is not dismissed, then a hearing must be held. The Grievance Redressal Cell shall inform, in writing, or via e-mail, the complaining party and all individuals or groups named in the complaint of the time and place of the hearing. The parties are not considered notified until they have received a copy of the complaint. The hearing shall be held at the earliest possible time, but not later than twenty-four (24) hours after receipt of the notice described above, unless all parties agree to waive the 24-hour time constraint.
- (4) The cell would be the regular unit of the College. The Grievance Redressal Cell shall determine the format for the hearing, but must require that both the complaining and responding parties appear physically before the board to discuss the issues through a complaint, answered, rebuttal, and rejoinder format. The purpose of the hearing is to gather the information necessary to make a decision, order, or ruling that will resolve an election dispute. To effectuate this purpose, the following rules should prevail at all hearings:
- a) All questions and discussions by the parties in dispute shall be directed to the Grievance Redressal Cell.
  - b) The Institutional head has the appellate jurisdiction over the final recommendations of the Grievance Redressal Cell.
  - c) The institutional head shall review findings of the Grievance Redressal Cell when appealed.
  - d) The institutional head may affirm or overturn the decision of the Grievance Redressal Cell, or modify the sanctions imposed.
  - e) Complaining parties shall be allowed not more than two witnesses, however the Grievance Redressal Cell may call witnesses as required. If said witnesses are unable to appear at the hearing, signed affidavits may be submitted to the Grievance Redressal Cell Chair for the purpose of testifying by proxy.
  - f) There shall be no direct or cross-examination of any party or witness by complaining or responding parties during hearings.
  - g) Reasonable time limits may be set by the Grievance Redressal Cell, to both parties.
  - h) The complaining party shall bear the burden of proof.
  - i) Decisions, orders, and rulings of the Grievance Redressal Cell must be concurred to by a majority of the Grievance Redressal Cell present and shall be announced as soon as possible after the hearing. The Grievance Redressal Cell shall issue a written opinion of the ruling within 12 hours of announcement of the decision. The written opinion must set forth the findings of fact by the Grievance Redressal Cell and the conclusions of law in support of it. Written opinions shall set a precedent for a time period of three election cycles for Grievance Redressal Cell rulings, and shall guide the Grievance Redressal Cell in its proceedings. Upon consideration of prior written opinions, the Grievance Redressal Cell may negate the decision, but must provide written documentation of reasons for doing so.

- j) If, after a hearing, the Grievance Redressal Cell finds that provisions of this Code were violated by a candidate, or a candidate's agents or workers, the Grievance Redressal Cell may restrict the candidate, or the candidates agents or workers, from engaging in some or all campaign activities for some or all of the remainder of the campaign. If an order is issued covering only part of the remaining campaign period, it shall take effect immediately so that after its termination, the candidate will have an opportunity to resume campaigning during the days immediately prior to and including the election days.
