

Delhi University Literature Festival 1.0, 2026

Shyam Lal College Evening (University of Delhi) enthusiastically participated in the first-ever Delhi University Literature Festival 1.0, held from 12 February 2026 to 14 February 2026. This landmark festival, a first in the 104-year history of Delhi University, featured a diverse range of events including singing, dance performances, plays, and sessions with renowned personalities from literature, media, Bollywood, and political spheres.

Being a constituent college of Delhi University, Shyam Lal College Evening actively engaged in the festival. Respected Principal, Prof. Nachiketa Singh, graced the occasion with his presence across all three days, accompanied by faculty members and students.

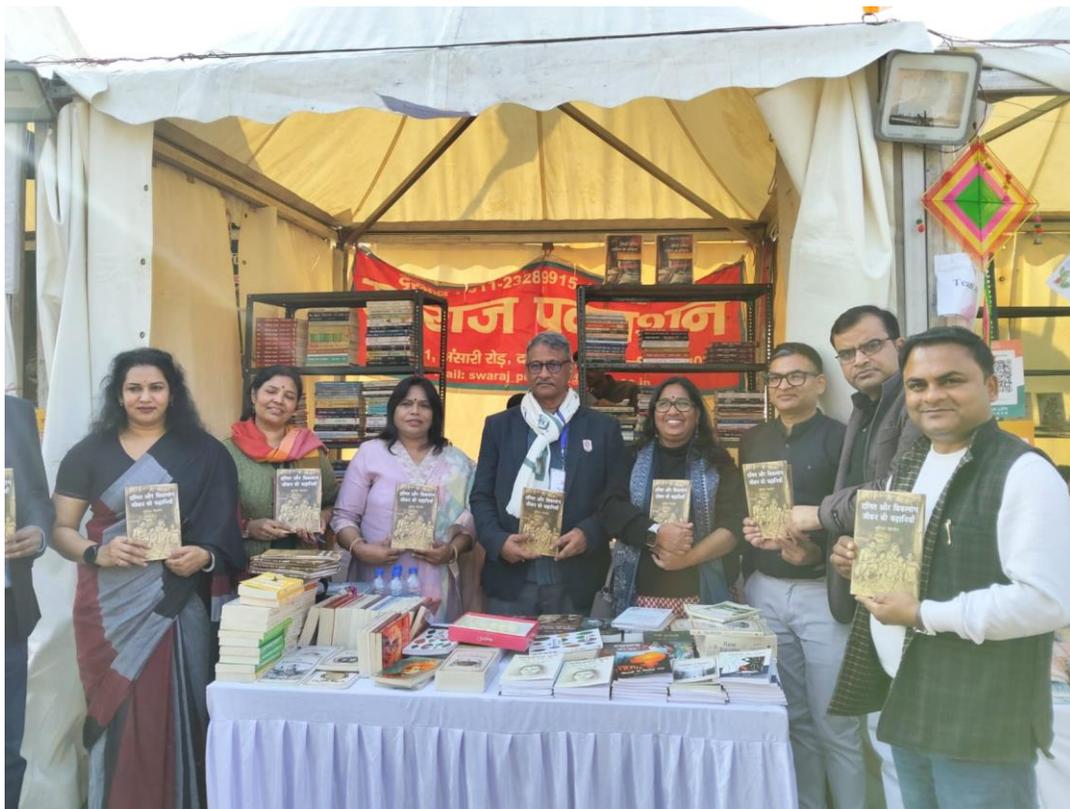

Highlights of the college's participation included:

- A solo dance performance by Ms. Shree (B.A. Hindi Hons. Student) on 14 February 2026.

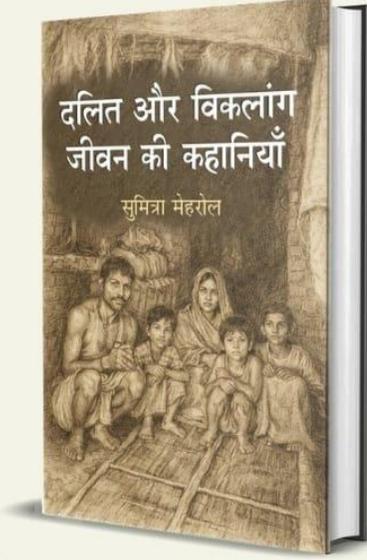

- A book release event of Prof. Sumitra (Department of Hindi).
