

Report on Educational Visit to Gandhi Smriti (3 February 2026)

The Gandhi Study Circle organized an educational visit to Gandhi Smriti, New Delhi, on 3 February 2026, to commemorate "Gandhi Martyr's Day" and to promote awareness of Mahatma Gandhi's life and teachings among students. The visit aimed to provide experiential learning and instil values of truth, non-violence, peace, and patriotism.

A group of students, accompanied by faculty members, visited the memorial and explored various sections, including Gandhiji's preserved room, prayer ground, and the Eternal Gandhi Multimedia Museum. Students observed historical exhibits, photographs, and audio-visual presentations that highlighted important events of Gandhiji's life and India's freedom struggle. They also paid tribute at the Martyr's Column, marking the spot where Mahatma Gandhi was assassinated, and offered silent prayers in his memory.

The visit proved to be highly educational and inspiring. It enhanced students' understanding of Gandhian philosophy and strengthened their sense of social responsibility, discipline, and national pride. Overall, the visit was a meaningful and enriching experience for all participants.
