Destination: Dr. Ambedkar National Memorial, Civil Lines, Delhi

Participants:

- Professor Nachiketa Singh, Principal
- 04 faculty members
- 38 students

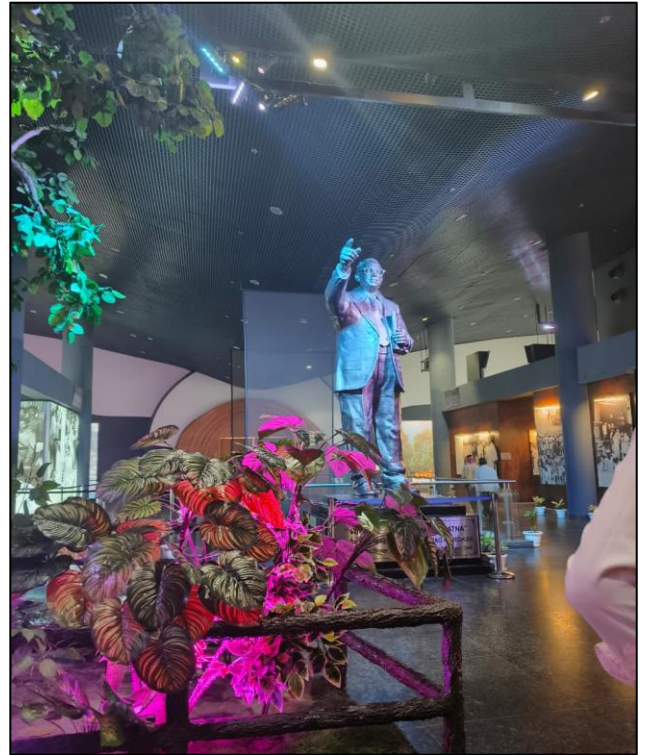

Objective: The objective of the educational visit to the Ambedkar Memorial was to acquaint students with the remarkable life, struggles, ideas, and enduring contributions of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar. The visit aimed to encourage students to understand the values of equality, dignity, education, social justice, and constitutional responsibility that shaped his vision for India. It also provided an opportunity for students to reflect on the importance of these values in contemporary society.

Summary of the Visit: The educational visit to the Ambedkar Memorial was an enriching and insightful experience for the students and faculty members. The visit offered students an opportunity to engage with the life and legacy of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar through thoughtfully curated exhibits, photographs, historical accounts, and informative displays.

The memorial presented a detailed account of Dr. Ambedkar's journey—from overcoming social and educational barriers in his early life to becoming an eminent scholar, economist, jurist, social reformer, and a key figure in the making of modern India. His remarkable perseverance and commitment to education demonstrated how knowledge can become a powerful means of social transformation.

The exhibits also helped students understand the broader social vision that guided Dr. Ambedkar's work. His efforts towards creating a society based on equality, dignity and justice, his advocacy for the empowerment of women and marginalized communities, his work concerning labour welfare, and his significant contribution to the framing of the Indian Constitution were presented in an engaging manner.

The visit enabled students to gain a deeper understanding of Dr. Ambedkar's philosophy and the historical circumstances in which his ideas emerged. It encouraged them to appreciate the significance of constitutional values and to carry forward the principles of equality, social responsibility, and inclusive development in their own lives.

About the Exhibition: The exhibition provided a visual and informative journey through the different phases of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar's life. It highlighted his childhood experiences, academic achievements, struggles against social discrimination, intellectual contributions, and his efforts towards transforming Indian society.

Through photographs, archival material, writings, and historical displays, the exhibition illustrated how Dr. Ambedkar transformed personal hardships into a lifelong commitment to social reform and nation-building. It also highlighted his international academic journey and his recognition as a distinguished scholar and thinker.

The exhibition further presented his vision of a democratic and egalitarian India, emphasizing the principles of liberty, equality, justice, and human dignity. Overall, it served as an informative platform for students to understand not only the historical personality of Dr. Ambedkar but also the relevance of his ideas in present-day India.
