3. Address by the Principal

Principal Prof. Nachiketa Singh welcomed the Chief Guest, students, and NSS members. He elaborated on the core ideology of NSS, emphasizing that it stands for 'selfless service' and is not merely an extracurricular activity for fulfilling hobbies, but a platform for meaningful social contribution. He highlighted the satisfaction and happiness derived from helping others.

4. Address by the Chief Guest

The Chief Guest, Ms. Neelu Ahmed, delivered a comprehensive and deeply moving speech about her experiences with the Salaam Baalak Trust, which has been operating for the welfare, education, and empowerment of street-connected children for the past 38 years. She highlighted the longstanding collaboration between the Trust and Shyam Lal College (Evening), where students provide consistent academic and social support to children in need.

Ms. Ahmed emphasized the following core aspects of the Trust's work:

- The Trust operates 27 centres, primarily mapping and rescuing vulnerable children from areas like the Red Line Metro and New Delhi Railway Station, providing them with essential health check-ups and mental health support.
- She referenced the movie 'Salaam Bombay', comparing its portrayal of street children's struggles with the real-life situations the Trust handles daily.
- The core process includes a legal procedure through the Child Welfare Committee (CWC), specifically focusing on children between the ages of 0-18.
- She shared poignant personal experiences, including the trauma and harassment faced by some children, highlighting the patience required in their rehabilitation.
- The Trust also provides vocational training, sports admissions, and international opportunities, noting a successful collaboration with a German company where children were taught French and Hindi, leading to placements in Germany and India, and securing admissions in international colleges based on their certificates.

5. MOU Signing Ceremony

A significant milestone of the event was the MOU Signing Ceremony. Before proceeding with further addresses, Prof. Nachiketa Singh and Mr. Sarthak Chauhan formally signed the Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with the Salaam Baalak Trust to solidify the ongoing partnership and commit to future social initiatives.

6. Address by Dr. Pankaj Patwa

Dr. Pankaj Patwa extended his thanks to the Chief Guest and spoke on the significance of the event and the newly signed MOU. He highlighted the leadership, communication, and life skills instilled by NSS, stating that it is not merely a slogan but a way of life. He emphasized the importance of 100% attendance in activities, promoting environmental conservation, water preservation, health awareness, and the responsibility to organize a 100-unit blood donation drive. The session was infused with motivation through the recitation of the NSS Geet.

7. Team Introduction & PPT Presentation

Md. Firdaus, President of the NSS Unit, addressed the gathering, introducing the core motive of bringing change through small, consistent efforts. He officially introduced the new NSS office bearers and team to the attendees. Following this, an informative PPT presentation about the NSS framework and activities was explained in detail by the Vice President of the NSS unit, emphasizing problem-solving skills and the collective goal to overcome societal issues.

Additionally, Dr. Gajendra, Dr. Ranjan, and the Principal were presented with a Letter of Appreciation.

8. Vote of Thanks & Conclusion

The programme concluded with a formal Vote of Thanks delivered by the NSS Programme Officer, Mr. Sarthak Chauhan. He expressed profound gratitude to the Principal, the Chief Guest, the NSS unit, and all faculty members for their continuous support and dedication. The orientation successfully instilled a sense of duty, leadership, and selfless service among the newly inducted NSS volunteers.
