

SHYAM LAL COLLEGE (EVENING)

UNIVERSITY OF DELHI

EVENT REPORT

Swachh Yamuna Prahari – Main Bhi Yamuna Prahari

Date: 09 October 2026

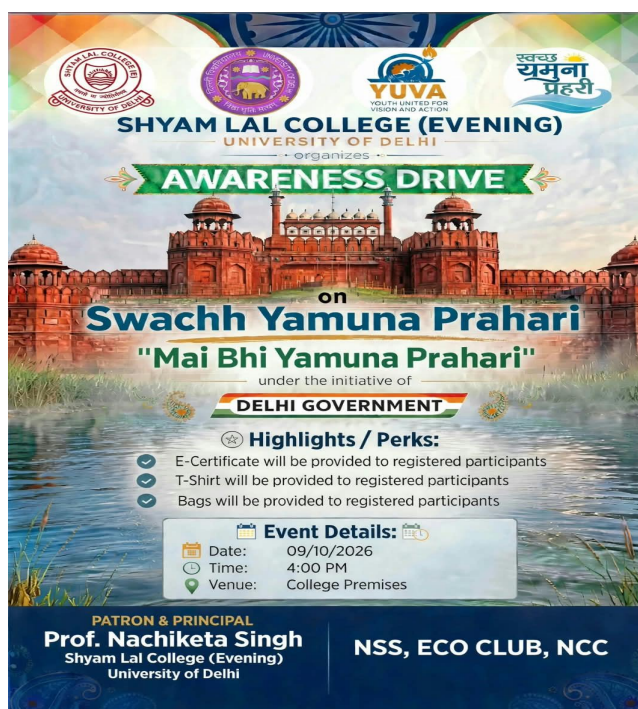

Time: 4:00 PM onwards

Venue: College Sports Ground

Organised by: Shyam Lal College (Evening), University of Delhi

NSS Coordinator: Mr. Sarthak Chauhan

NSS President: Md. Firdaus

Introduction

Shyam Lal College (Evening), University of Delhi, organised an awareness drive titled “Swachh Yamuna Prahari – Main Bhi Yamuna Prahari” on 9 October 2026 at the College Sports Ground. The initiative aimed to sensitise students towards the importance of Yamuna conservation, environmental sustainability, responsible waste management, and water conservation. It encouraged students to recognise their role as responsible citizens and actively contribute towards protecting the environment.

Objectives of the Programme

The primary objective of the drive was to promote environmental awareness and encourage collective responsibility for the cleanliness and conservation of the Yamuna River. The programme also aimed to promote sustainable practices, responsible waste disposal, water conservation, and active citizen participation in environmental protection.

Proceedings of the Event

The programme commenced at 4:00 PM at the College Sports Ground, bringing together students for an initiative dedicated to environmental awareness and sustainability. Organised under the banner of “Swachh Yamuna Prahari – Main Bhi Yamuna Prahari,” the drive highlighted the importance of collective efforts in preserving the Yamuna River and maintaining a clean environment.

Registered participants were provided with T-shirts and bags for the drive and encouraged to wear the designated T-shirts as a symbol of their participation and commitment to the cause. A pledge-taking ceremony was organised to inspire participants to become responsible Swachh Yamuna Praharis and contribute towards the cleanliness and conservation of the Yamuna.

The programme emphasised the significance of responsible waste management, water conservation, and environmentally conscious behaviour in everyday life. A photography session was also organised to document participation and spread the message of environmental responsibility.

The event was organised under the guidance of Prof. Nachiketa Singh, Principal, Shyam Lal College (Evening), with the coordination and support of Mr. Sarthak Chauhan, NSS Coordinator, and Md. Firdaus, NSS President.

Key Highlights

- Promotion of awareness regarding Yamuna conservation and environmental sustainability.
- Distribution and wearing of T-shirts among registered participants.
- Pledge-taking ceremony to encourage commitment towards environmental protection.
- Emphasis on water conservation and responsible waste management.
- Photography session to document participation and promote awareness.

Conclusion

The Swachh Yamuna Prahari – Main Bhi Yamuna Prahari awareness drive served as a meaningful initiative to foster environmental consciousness and civic responsibility among students. It reinforced the message that protecting the Yamuna requires collective participation, individual accountability, and consistent efforts towards cleanliness and sustainability.

The programme encouraged students to adopt eco-friendly practices and inspire others to contribute towards a cleaner and healthier environment. It concluded with the powerful message: “Main Bhi Yamuna Prahari – Aap Bhi Yamuna Prahari!”

